We are committed to preparing our pupils not only for their next stage of education, but for successful careers and fulfilling lives as confident young women. Our Latest Ofsted Inspection

Hodge Hill Girls' School was most recently inspected by Ofsted in June 2026, with the inspection report published in July 2026. The inspection provided an important external evaluation of the school and recognised many of the strengths that underpin our work with pupils. It reflects a school community where pupils' education, personal development and preparation for their futures remain central to our work.

The inspection also forms an important part of our continued journey of improvement. We are committed to building upon our strengths, responding purposefully to areas identified for further development and ensuring that our provision continues to improve for every pupil.

Our approach remains rooted in high expectations and our longstanding commitment to 'Educating Tomorrow's Women Today'. We want every pupil who attends Hodge Hill Girls' School to leave us with the knowledge, confidence, character and ambition to succeed in the next stage of her life.

We take great pride in the care and support provided to our pupils. We recognise that successful education extends beyond academic achievement and that pupils thrive when they feel safe, understood, supported and challenged to achieve their best. We work closely with families, feeder schools and external professionals to identify and respond to individual needs, including those of pupils with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND). Our staff work collaboratively to ensure appropriate support is in place and that pupils are able to participate fully in school life. Our wider pastoral and personal development provision supports pupils to develop the confidence, resilience, independence and aspirations they need for their future lives.

Working at Hodge Hill Girls' School means becoming part of a diverse and ambitious school community with a shared commitment to improving the experiences and outcomes of our pupils. We value colleagues who demonstrate high expectations, professionalism, initiative and a genuine commitment to young people. Whatever the role within school, every member of staff contributes to the education, safeguarding and development of our pupils and to the culture of our wider school community. We warmly encourage prospective applicants to visit Hodge Hill Girls' School.
