

HODGE HILL GIRLS' SCHOOL

"Educating tomorrow's women today"

23rd January 2026

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am pleased to share some very positive news with you regarding Hodge Hill Girls School.

The school has recently received a letter from the Secretary of State for Education, Bridget Phillipson, recognising the exceptional outcomes achieved by disadvantaged pupils at the end of the 2024/25 academic year. In her correspondence, she commends the school's performance, noting that it places Hodge Hill Girls School among the highest-performing schools nationally and describing this as a significant achievement.

This recognition is a testament to the dedication of the staff, alongside the commitment and hard work demonstrated by the pupils. It highlights the impact of high expectations and a shared ambition for success.

I am extremely proud of the pupils and staff and would also like to acknowledge the ongoing support of parents and carers. Working in partnership as per our PRIDE values, we remain firmly committed to ensuring the very best opportunities and outcomes for all our children.

The full letter from the Secretary of State is available at the bottom of this page should you wish to read it in full.

Thank you for your continued support.

Dear Mrs Adu,

Congratulations to you and your team on the excellent outcomes the disadvantaged pupils at Hodge Hill Girls School achieved at the end of the 2024/25 academic year. Your school's performance places it among the very best nationally, and this is a significant achievement. This success reflects the dedication of your staff and the hard work of your pupils. It shows what can be achieved when ambition and commitment come together. Thank you for everything you do to give children the best possible opportunities to succeed.

Your school's achievements demonstrate what is possible, and I hope you will continue to share your experience and best practice with others.

Please pass on my thanks and congratulations to your staff and pupils. I look forward to working with you as we strive together to raise standards for all.

Bridget Phillipson
Secretary of State for Education
