1. Introduction

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how Hodge Hill Girls' School uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils at our school.

This privacy notice applies while we believe your daughter is not capable of understanding and exercising their own data protection rights. As they get older and more mature children have more say in exercising their own data protection rights.

We, Hodge Hill Girls' School, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Mrs L. Homans (see 'Contact us' below).

2. The personal data we hold

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about your daughter includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details, contact preferences, date of birth, identification documents
- Results of internal assessments and externally set tests
- Pupil and curricular records
- Exclusion information
- Attendance information
- Safeguarding information
- Details of any support received, including care packages, plans and support providers
- Details of medical conditions, including physical and mental health.
- Details of any support received, including care packages, plans and support providers.

- Photographs
- Videos

We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information about your daughter that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes, but is not restricted to, information about:

- Any medical conditions we need to be aware of, including physical and mental health
- Photographs and CCTV images captured in school
- Characteristics, such as ethnic background or special educational needs

We may also hold data about your child that we have received from other organisations, including other schools and social services.

3. Why we use this data

We use the data listed above to:

- a) Support pupil learning
- b) Monitor and report on pupil progress
- c) Provide appropriate pastoral care
- d) Protect pupil welfare
- e) Assess the quality of our services
- f) Administer admissions waiting lists
- g) Carry out research
- h) Comply with the law regarding data sharing
- i) Marketing and promotion
- j) Communication with parents via School Gateway

3.1 Use of your daughter's personal data for marketing purposes

Where you have given us consent to do so, we may send your daughter marketing information by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that may be of interest to them.

You can withdraw consent or 'opt out' of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by emailing enquiry@hodgehgs.bham.sch.uk or calling 0121 464 3094.

3.2 Use of your daughter's personal data in automated decision making and profiling

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

4. Our lawful basis for using this data

Our lawful bases for processing your daughter's personal data for the purposes listed in section 3 above are as follows:

- For the purposes of A, B, C, D, F and H, in accordance with the 'public task' basis – we need to process data to fulfil our statutory function as a school as set out here: EYFS curriculum, Childcare Act 2006, Keeping Children Safe in Education, Education Act 2002, Working Together to Safeguard Children, Children Act 2004.
- For the purposes of A, B, C, D, F and H, in accordance with the 'legal obligation' basis – we need to process data to meet our responsibilities under law as set out here: EYFS curriculum, Childcare Act 2006, Keeping Children Safe in Education, Education Act 2002, Working Together to Safeguard Children, Children Act 2004.
- For the purposes of E, G, I and J, in accordance with the 'consent' basis – we will obtain consent from you to use your child's personal data under Data Protection Act 2018.
- For the purposes of D, in accordance with the 'vital interests' basis – we will use this personal data in a life-or-death situation as set out here: Working Together to Safeguard Children.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your daughter's data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you would be able to withdraw your consent should you ever wish to do so.

4.1 Our basis for using special category data

For 'special category' data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and one of the following conditions for processing as set out in data protection law:

- We have obtained your explicit consent to use your daughter's personal data in a certain way
- We need to perform or exercise an obligation or right in relation to employment, social security or social protection law
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your daughter's life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to process it for health or social care purposes, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health or social work professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest

For criminal offence data, we will only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and a condition for processing as set out in data protection law. Conditions include:

- We have obtained your consent to use it in a specific way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your daughter's life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for, or in connection with, legal proceedings, to obtain legal advice, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal rights
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation

5. Collecting this data

While the majority of information we collect about your daughter is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

Most of the data we hold about your daughter will come from you, but we may also hold data about your daughter from:

- Local authorities
- Government departments or agencies
- Police forces, courts, tribunals

6. How we store this data

We keep personal information about your daughter while they are attending our school. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at our school if this is necessary. Our record retention policy and schedule sets out how long we keep information about pupils. We currently retain data in line with the Information and Records Management Society (IRMS)'s Toolkit for Schools which is the standard used by most schools in the UK.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your daughter's personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your daughter's personal data securely when we no longer need it.

7. Who we share data with

We do not share information about your daughter with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law), we may share personal information about your daughter with:

- Birmingham City Council – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and information about exclusions
- Department for Education (DfE)
- Our Youth Support Services provider

National Pupil Database

We are required to provide information about pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the early years census.

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database (NPD), which is owned and managed by the DfE and provides evidence on school performance to inform research.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and exam boards.

The DfE may share information from the NPD with third parties, such as other organisations which promote children’s education or wellbeing in England. These third parties must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use the data.

For more information, see the DfE’s own webpage on how it collects and shares research data, or contact them directly with any further questions about the NPD.

7.1 Transferring data internationally

We may share personal information about your daughter with international third parties outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), where different data protection legislation applies.

We may share academic attainment data with other schools or education establishments outside the United Kingdom if a child is moving abroad and attending the school.

Where we transfer your daughter’s personal data to a country or territory outside the EEA, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

In cases where we have to set up safeguarding arrangements to complete this transfer, you can get a copy of these arrangements by contacting us.

8. Your rights

8.1 How to access personal information that we hold about your daughter

You have a right to make a ‘subject access request’ to gain access to personal information that we hold about your daughter.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about your daughter, we will (subject to any exemptions that apply):

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your daughter’s personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please contact us (see ‘Contact us’ below).

8.2 Your right to access your daughter’s educational record

Parents, or those with parental responsibility, also have the right to access their daughter’s educational record (which includes most information about a pupil). This right applies as long as the pupil is aged under 18.

There are certain circumstances in which this right can be denied, such as if releasing the information might cause serious harm to the physical or mental health of the pupil or another individual, or if it would mean releasing exam marks before they are officially announced.

To make a request, please contact the Data Protection Officer (see ‘Contact us’ below).

8.3 Your other rights regarding your daughter's data

Under data protection law, you have certain rights regarding how your daughter's personal data is used and kept safe. For example, you have the right to:

- Object to our use of your daughter's personal data
- Prevent your daughter's data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to and challenge the use of your daughter's personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected
- In certain circumstances, have the personal data we hold about your child deleted or destroyed, or restrict its processing
- In certain circumstances, be notified of a data breach
- Make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us (see 'Contact us' below).

9. Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
